BOSTON:
PUBLISHED BY JAMES LORING,
132 Washington Street.

ECLIPSES IN 1832.

There will not be any eclipse of the Moon in the course of this year. Of the Sun there will be three, viz: two by the Moon and the third by Mercury, which is more usually termed a transit of Mercury over the Sun's disc.

The first will happen on the 1st of February, and will be partly visible in the State of Louisiana, but in no other State in the Union. The Sun will be centrally and annularly eclipsed on the meridian of the place, in latitude 15 deg. 12 min. North, longitude 154 deg. 15 min. West.

The second (the transit of Mercury) will happen on Saturday, May 5th. Nearly the whole of the transit will be visible in New England, as follows, viz:—

Sun's lower limb rises 36m. after the beginning of the transit, }	4h. 54m. 0s. M.	} Mean time at Boston.
Apparent Conjunction,	7 20 27 "
Nearest approach of Mercury to the Sun's centre,	7 41 42 "
Second internal contact, - - - - -	11 4 2 "
Second external contact, - - - - -	11 7 17 "

Viewed through a telescope (the eye being carefully protected from the Sun's light) Mercury will appear as a small round dark body, passing across the Sun's disc.

The third will happen on the morning of Friday, July 27th, and will be visible throughout the United States.

At Boston it will be visible as follows, viz:—

Beginning at - - - - -	7h. 16m. 46s. M.	} Mean time at Boston.
Apparent Conjunction, - - - - -	7 59 8 "
Greatest Obscuration, - - - - -	8 6 35 "
End at - - - - -	9 0 5 "

Digits eclipsed 4 degrees 49 minutes on the Sun's south limb.

☞ The Compiler of the REGISTER has endeavoured to be accurate in all the statements and names which it contains; but when the difficulties in such a compilation are considered, and the constant changes which are occurring, by new elections, deaths, &c. it is seen at once to be impossible to attain perfect accuracy. He therefore distinctly states, that he declines this responsibility, and only presents information to the best of his knowledge.

ACTS OF THE GENERAL COURT OF MASSACHUSETTS.

By an Act of the Legislature of March 12, 1830, the Courts of Probate have concurrent jurisdiction with the Supreme Judicial Court and the Court of Common Pleas, in granting licenses to Executors, Administrators, and Guardians, to sell, for the payment of debts and legacies or taxes, or for the support or legal expenses of Wards, the whole of any real estate, where a partial sale of the residue would be greatly injured.—The Judges of Probate Courts have authority to adjourn as they shall judge necessary. And when prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause from attending a Court, his Register of Probate may adjourn the same by his direction.

By a further Act of the Legislature, of Feb. 16, 1831, the Courts of Probate of the respective counties in this Commonwealth, have authority, upon the petition of guardians of minors and others, executors and administrators, to license the sale by auction of the real estate of their wards, testators and intestates, in all cases where the Supremé Judicial Court now have authority to grant such license : and the person or persons so licensed shall give the bond, notice, and take the oath which are now by law required, when license is granted by the Supreme Judicial Court. Provided, that no such license shall be granted until after such notice has been given to all persons interested therein, as is directed in the tenth section of the act to which this is in addition ; and provided further, that an appeal shall be allowed from any order, decree, sentence, decision, or denial of any Judge of Probate respecting any petition for such license, in like manner as in other cases.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the churches.

Their meeting is held in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, annually, at five, P. M. and the following day. After transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

The Officers of the Convention at present are —

Rev. Nathaniel L. Frothingham, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. Dr. Wisner, of Boston, Scribe of the Convention.

Rev. Dr. Jenks, first Preacher.

Rev. Dr. Osgood, second Preacher.

For the purpose of investigating cases of necessity, and of application for the charity of the Convention, there are two standing Committees; a Central Committee, chosen centrally, and a Reporting Committee, whose members reside in different parts of the State. The Reporting Committee are required, each year, to investigate the circumstances of the objects of this charity, whether already on the list, or needing, or applying the first time for aid, and make a particular statement to the Central Committee, directed to the Scribe of the Convention, at least one week before the meeting of the Convention. Should any member neglect so to do for two successive years, his place in the Reporting Committee shall be vacated. The Central Committee receive from the members of the Reporting Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of subjects of the charity of the Convention, and, having considered the same, are to judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting, annually.

The statements of the members of the Reporting Committee are expected to contain answers to the following questions —

1. What is her age?
2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property?
4. What is her ability to help herself?

112 General Association in Massachusetts.

5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?

6. What is her income?

7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable, that she should have aid this year?

Annual meeting on the Monday preceding the last Wednesday in May.

[This Society was incorporated 24th of March, 1786; "for the humane and benevolent purpose of affording relief and support to the widows and children of deceased ministers. The members may not exceed thirty of the clergy, and laity in equal proportion."]

President, Israel Thorndike, Esq.

Treasurer, George Ticknor, Esq.

Committee for nominating the objects of its charity, Rev. Dr. Lowell, Rev. Dr. Porter, Rev. Dr. Pierce.

General Association in Massachusetts.

This body was organized in June, 1805. It is composed of delegations from particular Associations of evangelical Congregational Ministers, two from each Association. Its members "admit as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines which have been generally embraced by the churches of New England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance, and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

The members of this Society amount to about 400, reside in 20 different States, and belong to seven denominations of Christians. The Board of Directors who are chosen annually, meet quarterly on the second Wednesday of January, April, July, and October, and oftener if necessary. A Committee of the Board meet the day previous, at 3 P. M. at the Rooms of the Society, to examine and recommend candidates for patronage; —besides whom, there are 41 Examining Committees in different parts of the United States. There are seven Branch Societies connected with the Parent Society, and an agency established at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Over eleven hundred young men have been assisted in a greater, or less degree, by the funds. Between 500 and 600 are at present receiving patronage at more than seventy Institutions. Between 300 and 400 of those who were formerly aided, have already become preachers; of whom, twenty-four have devoted themselves to Foreign Missions. About twenty have become Permanent Instructors, as Professors or Principals in various Literary and Theological Institutions, and fifty more are temporarily employed in the business of instruction. Not far from seventy have died while pursuing their studies, or been compelled to abandon their object for want of health. Between thirty and forty have lost their patronage in consequence of not possessing the qualifications required by the rules of the Society.

Those who have been aided by the Society belong to seven denominations of Christians—they are natives of almost every State and Territory of the Union, and have pursued studies at ten Theological Seminaries, twenty-three Colleges, seventy-seven Academies—Total 110 Institutions. All monies are now appropriated in the form of advantageous loans, and not as a charity. One Thousand dollars constitutes a Permanent Scholarship; and seventy-five dollars a year, for seven years, constitutes a Temporary Scholarship.

UNITED STATES' MINT.

In 1792, an act of Congress was passed instituting a Mint, to be located in Philadelphia. A building, plain in its appearance, but then considered sufficiently convenient for the purpose, was purchased in North Seventh street, and the establishment went into operation in 1793.

For a few years the coinage was very limited, but as its objects and usefulness became more widely known, the precious metals flowed more freely into the establishment.

The Institution is supported from the public treasury, for the general good; and depositors of bullion of standard fineness, receive, without abatement of expense, an equal weight of gold or silver coins.

The average coinage per annum, for the first

7 years, from 1793 to 1800, was	- - - -	$362,000
The average coinage from 1800 to 1810, per ann.		697,000
Do. from 1810 to 1820,	do.	1,166,000
Do. from 1820 to 1830,	do.	1,850,000

The whole coinage amounting to 37 millions.

As the supply of bullion increased, the buildings of the Mint were enlarged; but the liberal operations of the Bank of the United States, made it necessary to ask for increased accommodations. In 1827, the deposits from that Bank alone amounted to 1 1-2 millions.

In 1829 a liberal provision was made for a new building, A lot was purchased in Chesnut, near Broad-street, and the corner stone was laid on the 4th of July, 1829.

The building is of white marble, with two porticoes, of six columns each, fronting Chesnut street and Penn Square; the design of the building is by Mr. Strickland.

Its dimensions are 123 feet on the fronts, and 193 feet on the flanks, including the porticoes. The two suites of apartments intended for the important processes of the assay, extend each 50 feet by 40; those for the melter and refiner extend 95 feet by 32; those for laminating ingots, 55 feet by 40, the propelling steam power being placed in the basement story; and the coining rooms extend 120 feet by 32.

In a distinct suite of apartments in the attic story, are preserved the standard weights of the Mint, and the balances for adjusting those in ordinary use; one of these apartments is intended as a cabinet for selected coins and medals, and for mineral and metallic specimens.

The extended means and facilities afforded by the new edifice, will undoubtedly increase its usefulness.

The first complete Census of the United States, was taken in 1790. The population of the Thirteen States, at the time of the Declaration of Independance, was 2,600,000.

CITY REGISTER.

City of Boston Incorporated Feb. 23, 1822.

CITY HALL.

This edifice, now in the occupancy of the Municipal Officers of the City, was erected in 1714. The expense was borne equally between the then Province and town of Boston. By a severe fire, in 1747, it became necessary to entirely rebuild the interior: again, the Province paid one half the expense, the County of Suffolk one quarter, and the inhabitants of Boston were assessed for the remainder. After the Revolution, it was the place of meeting for the General Court, till after the completion of the State-House, near Beacon hill. From about that time, to the year 1830, (thirty years,) the lower floor and cellar, were used by various tradesmen, Insurance Offices, &c. At the close of 1830, having been thoroughly repaired, it was, by an ordinance of the City Government, called the City Hall,—by which name it is hereafter to be designated. It stands at the head of State Street, and on the line of Washington Street, the Broadway of the Metropolis of Massachusetts. Its length is 112 feet, by 36 in width, with a tower, overlooking most of the City and harbour, rising from the centre of the roof. Being in the very focus of business, and nearly in the centre of the city, the use to which this venerable pile is now devoted, appears to give universal satisfaction.

On the first floor are three large rooms: that facing Washington Street, is the Post-Office. At the other extremity, looking down State Street, is the Marine News Room, one of the best conducted establishments, for the accommodation of Merchants, in the United States. The middle room, a lofty apartment, supported by pillars, is the exchange, and common thorough-fare to the Public Offices.

From this central room or Merchants' Exchange, is a flight of winding stairs, leading to a suit of apartments, in the second story. Directly over the Post-Office is the splendid Hall of the Common Council, in which they ordinarily meet, on public business, every Monday evening. Opposite, over the Exchange Room, is the no less richly and tastefully ornamented Hall of the Mayor and Aldermen. In this room, the Chief Magistrate of the City, together with the City Clerk, remain through the day, in the discharge of their ordinary duties. The Board of Aldermen hold their meeting, also, on Monday evenings.—Around the circular area of the stairs, are a series of Offices, viz. the Auditor's, Treasurer's, Assistant City Clerk's, Clerk of Common Council, and the Health Office, which latter accommodates the City Marshal, Superintendent of Burial Grounds, Physician of the Port, Captain of the Watch, Superintendent of Lamps, and the Commissioner of Streets.

Another flight of stairs leads to the third story, in which is the Office of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, City Land Commissioner, Messenger, a Committee Room, Post-Master's private apartment, and a large Hall, in which is a recently organized public Vaccine Institution, for the gratuitous inoculation of the poor, during the winter months.

The whole is lighted with gas, as well as the lamps at the four corners of the building. Besides being highly ornamental to the city, the concentration of so many important Offices under one roof, renders the City Hall an object of peculiar interest.

Commonwealth Hospital.

The Legislature, the past year, having appropriated seven thousand dollars for a stone Hospital, at the Quarantine Ground, Rainsford Island, it is now in the process of building. As it is intended exclusively for persons labouring under the small pox, it has been planned with reference to the comfort and convenience of persons laboring under that loathsome disease.

The building is sixty-four feet, by thirty-six; three stories high in front, and two on the back side,—surrounded by lofty fluted columns, supporting a double row of piazzas, eight feet in width.—In a few months it is expected to be ready for the reception of the sick, arriving from foreign countries.
